

I Lift My Hands [D, 57 bpm, 4/4]

[Cornerstone Worship] by Eugene Lau

Verse 1:

There are times I cast myself to doubt
How holy I could be
There are lies that spin into my head
How worthless life could be

Bridge:

There are times I turn to You
I see You looking down at me
Saying, "Son, you have to lift your hands to Me"

Chorus:

I lift my hands to the Great Almighty
I lift my hands to the blessed Saviour
I lift my hands to the Holy Spirit
I lift my hands, I lift my hands

Verse 2:

There are times I sense an emptiness
Despite of all I have
There are blessings which I do not see
That are pouring out to me
