“Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” ³¹ So they said, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household.” ³² Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. ³³ And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. And immediately he and all his family were baptised. ³⁴ Now when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them; and he rejoiced, having believed in God with all his household.

THE SURE MERCIES OF DAVID

Then I will punish their transgression with the rod, And their iniquity with stripes. ³³ Nevertheless My lovingkindness I will not utterly take from him, nor allow My faithfulness to fail.

³⁴ My covenant I will not break, nor alter the word that has gone out of My lips. ³⁵ Once I have sworn by My holiness; I will not lie to David: ³⁶ His seed shall endure forever, and his throne as the sun before Me; ³⁷ It shall be established forever like the moon, even like the faithful witness in the sky." I urge you to take heart (or be courageous), for there will be no loss of life among you, but only the ship. For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whom I belong and whom I serve saying, “Do not be afraid, Paul, you must be brought to Caesar and indeed God has granted you all those who sail with you.”

ONE OF THE OVERARCHING PRINCIPLES IN THE BIBLE

The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.
