FATHERHOOD

I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved children I warn you. <sup>15</sup> For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

EGYPTIANS ATTACK U.N. AND BRITISH TROOPS

Eden returns to tackle Suez problems

PORT SAID, Saturday — Egyptian commandos attacked United Nations forces last night and British soldiers this morning. Two Egyptians were killed and 15 people, including a British officer, wounded.

There were five attacks in 24 hours on the French commander, Lieut. Gen. Sir Hugh Stockwell, told a Press conference: "This is exactly the type of incident I expect."

Major Gen. E. L. M. Burns, commander of the United Nations Emergency Force in Egypt, made the strongest protest to the Egyptian authorities against last night's attacks on Norwegian and Swedish patrols of the force.

Small rockets were fired at the headquarters of a Royal Tank Regiment squadron before dawn. There were attacks with rifles and grenades following. An Egyptian was killed.

Exchange of fire

Other attacks were made during the night on two of the Royal Scots, who were patrolling the Suez Canal.

One Egyptian was killed during an exchange of fire and six grenades and sten-gun fire were exchanged at Port Said.

The Egyptian attacks are believed to have been organized by commando leaders sent to Port Said by the Egyptian Government to direct underground operations against the withdrawing force.

The Egyptian Government has declared an "honourable" withdrawal from the Suez Canal area and has ordered its troops to return to Egypt.

KUALA LUMPUR, Saturday.

The Federal Government indicated tonight that price controls are still on the cards.

The Assistant Minister for Commerce and Industries, Mohd. Yusoff bin Yusoff, said that ideas of controls on essential goods and foodstuffs have not yet been abandoned.

Leading merchants in the Chamber of Commerce (representing the country) told the government yesterday that certain price in the price of very "hotly" goods and foodstuffs.

The Department of Commerce based a statement after a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and Industries, and the government yesterday.

The meeting with reporters of the Chamber of Commerce and Industries had said that the government had said that it was "very" hard to work.
