

Why We Never Need

FEAR DEATH

Jesus answered and said to them, “You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God.

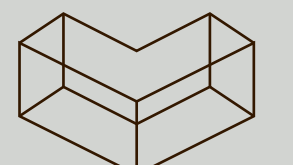

³⁰ For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels of God in heaven.

³¹ But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, saying,

³² ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?’ God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.” ³³ And when the multitudes heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

Then the Lord spoke to Moses that very same day, saying: “Go up this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo... and die on the mountain which you ascend, and be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people...”

For I am hard-pressed between the two,
having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you.

A pastor who died but returned to tell his story shared how he was instructed that every believer would be asked these questions:

1

How have you stewarded what I have given you for fulfilling
My purposes?

2

How have you lived your life with regards to the Lordship of my Son?

Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed— ⁵² in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

⁵³ For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

1 CORINTHIANS 15:51-55

⁵⁴ So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory. ⁵⁵ O Death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?”

For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house
not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Most assuredly, I say to you, if anyone keeps
My Word, he shall never see death.
